GAGGED, BEATEN, ROBBED

Seattle, August 3.—Thomas S. Lippy, the Klondike millionaire was confronted by two masked burglars in his home on returning from church tonight. He was beaten over the head with a revolver, bound, gagged and tied to a post of his stairway. A servant girl, previously surprised by the burglars and tied to the stairway, witnessed the attack on her employer. Lippy was robbed of two gold watches and $14, all the money on his person. His wounds are considered quite serious.

WOULD THERE WERE MORE SUCH

New York, August 3.—The heirs of E. B. Gonzalez, who about 20 years ago conducted a large grocery business in East Orange, N. J., have received a check for $30 from a conscious stricken woman who says she has not enjoyed a night of sound sleep since she ran up the bill for groceries 27 years ago and left town without paying it.

Gunboat Alert At The Regatta

Navy Department Orders It to Astoria—Committee Closes Deal With Arnold's Shows

The regatta committee last night received a telegram from Assistant Secretary of the Navy Darling stating that the gunboat Alert has been ordered to participate in the regatta festivities. The committee has left no effort neglected to have a government vessel assigned here, and after days of anxious waiting and wiring its efforts have been rewarded.

A feature of the regatta announced for the first time last night is the street carnival that will be held in connection with the regatta proper. Negotiations have been concluded to bring a traveling organization known as Arnold's tented shows, not a circus, but a little of everything with a touch of the Oriental in its makeup. There is a dog and monkey show, thapese artists and horizontal bar performers, a ventriloquist, a minstrel company, and last, but not least, a midway. Then there are numerous slideshows, including glass blowers, moving pictures, a menagerie of wild animals, a family of singers, dancers and contortionists. The main show is inclosed in a huge tent, which leads into smaller tents where the slideshows are held. This is known as the midway system, and affords the visitor a continuous round of pleasure. A balloon ascension is also one of the features of the Arnold organization.

In order to get in smooth running order the Arnold shows will open on Tuesday, August 18, and will remain in the city until Saturday, August 22. In connection with the street fair will be conducted a country store, the privileges being vested in the regatta committee for this feature. The confetti concessions have been sold.

If the city council grants the petition of the regatta committee for the vacation of the adjacent streets, the street fair tents will be pitched in the court house yard.

Some of the fraternal societies are talking of erecting arches in the streets and of putting floats in the parade. The committee expresses the hope that this will be done, as it is the desire of the members that the parade be typical of the industrial, commercial and civic strength of the city.

It has not been decided whether to have a babies' day or not, but there is a well defined movement among proud mothers in Astoria to have an opportunity to exhibit their offspring. It is

ROME GROWS IMPATIENT AT POPE'S NON-ELECTION

Rising Smoke Tells Same Story of Failure to Elect Leo's Successor and Great Crowd Shows Disapproval

If Contending Eactions Do Not Agree Report Has It That Foreign Candidate May Be Placed In Papal Chair, Cardinal Kopp Being Mentioned

Rome, Aug. 3.—After three full days of deliberation, during which six ballots have been taken, members of the conclave still remain shut up in the Vatican without electing a successor to Leo XIII. The utility of both ballots taken today was evidenced by smoke which arose from Sistine chapel. The second ballot tonight was viewed by another large crowd in the square of San Pietro and which, it was estimated, numbered about 15,000. Great disappointment was manifested and when a little puff of smoke appeared, there were loud cries not only of disappointment, but even of derision.

Rome is becoming extremely impatient of the delay in the selection of a new pope. Today practically the only news that came from Sistine chapel was of the grave illness of Cardinal Herrero.

Among the ambassadors and ecclesiastics there exists the general opinion that if only for the sake of relieving the aged cardinals, much may be sacrificed within the conclave to arrive at a speedy conclusion. On the other hand there are a few pessimistic enough to believe hostility among the factions in the sacred college is so bitter that the struggle may continue for several weeks.

Out of all the rumors and gossip about concerning what is transpiring in the conclave, the most persistent report is to the effect that the Rampolla and Serfino Vannutelli factions have remained compact. The Italia says that matters have reached a point which presages the possibility of the election of a foreign pope and that the German Cardinal Kopp is the most frequently mentioned. The Italia interprets it as a move on the part of Rampolla to win over the Austria-German cardinals from Serafino Vannutelli.

One of the daily signs at the Vatican now is the arrival of a nun whom Cardinal Vaszary, primate of Hungary, brought with him to act as his cook. He desired to have his cook enter the conclave, but the presence of women being forbidden she cooks his dinner outside and brings it daily to Sistine chapel, escorted by two Hungarian soldiers in uniform.

of the convicts visited his ranch about seven miles southwest of Blacerville this morning. Sheriff Bosquit is of the opinion that these men compose what has been known as the Webber creek party and believes they too will endeavor to go up the Consummes river. G. E. Fennel of Reno, is expected to arrive here tomorrow with a couple of blood hounds.

PROTECTS HER LITTLE CHILD

New York, August 3.—Albert J. Fisk, his wife and baby and his friend, David W. Ellis, have narrowly escaped death in a collision between their automobile and a motor train on the Brooklyn Rapid Transit road. The automobile was upset and smashed, the occupants being hurled out with great violence. None of them were seriously injured.

Mr. Ellis lives in Flint, Mich. He was visiting his friend at the latter's home in Brooklyn. In returning from a trip in Long Island they sped along Jamaica avenue. Hearing a motor train behind them they drew up to let it pass. There was not room enough but the motorman evidently thought so and the train, moving at a good speed caught the automobile on the side. It was hurled against the curb and torn to pieces. Mrs. Fisk who was holding her baby, managed to shield the little one in her arms when she fell and it was unharmed.

ALLIANCE OF CITIZENS ENDORSES EXPULSION

Commend the Action of Idaho Springs League to Expel Union Men Alleged to Use Dynamite

Miners Appeal to Governor Who Refers Them to Courts If They Seek Redress For Wrongs or Protection From Personal Violence

Denver, Aug. 3.—At a meeting of the Citizens Alliance called for the purpose of endorsing the action of the Citizens Protective League of Idaho Springs, Colo., in expelling from that city 14 members of the local miners union, the day after the blowing up with dynamite of the converter house of the Sun and Moon mine recently, resolutions of commendation were adopted and its action "which, while involving a technical deviation from the letter of the law, became nevertheless necessary owing to the exigencies of the case."

The preamble of the resolutions charge that within the organization of western federation of miners, "there exists a strict, oath-bound inner circle ready and pledged to commit personal violence, murder and destruction of property at the behest and mandate of their leaders, who, in turn, are law unto themselves."

Gov. Peabody today answered the petition of the Idaho Springs miners' union asking protection of the state against banishment of union miners by the alliance organization of Idaho Springs, also protection by militia for them in case they return to their homes. The governor says expelled miners will have to seek redress through the courts.

BEAUTIFUL CHILD DISAPPEARS AS SEEN BY COUNT TOLSTOI

THOUGHT THAT STYLISH DRESSED WOMAN HAS STOLEN DAUGHTER OF FRUIT VENDER

New York, August 3.—Although spurred in their efforts by offers of a large reward, the police have not been able to find the slightest trace of the beautiful baby daughter of Giacomo Lapina, an Italian fruit dealer residing in West Forty-sixth street. The child who is two years and a half old, disappeared 12 days ago. At first it was thought she had clambered out of her cart on the sidewalk, where her mother had left her a few minutes but a thorough search leads to the belief that the little one was kidnapped.

From neighbors, the detectives have learned that a private carriage in which rode a richly dressed woman was seen about the place before the baby disappeared. It is seldom that a private conveyance is seen in that particular locality, and its appearance excited considerable notice. The searchers are now fully convinced the woman was a kidnaper. No motive for stealing the child has been found, however.

DOFF STRIPES, DON GRAY

New York, August 3.—Three hundred of New Jersey's state convicts at Trenton have donned their new uniforms for the first time, the stripes have been abolished for suits of light gray. The lockstep and close cropping of the convict's hair were done away with some time ago in the New Jersey prison.

MISS GOULD TO ARBITRATE

New York, August 3.—Helen M. Gould has been asked to act as arbitrator in the strike in the Holyoke paper mills, according to a dispatch from Springfield, Mass. The invitation was forwarded by the leader of the striking cutter girls. The strike involves 4000 employees.

FULL OF CHERRY STONES.

New York, Aug. 3.—Nearly 100 cherry pits have been found in the appendix of a patient who was being operated upon in a Brooklyn hospital. The collection of the stones had not caused appendicitis, however. Their discovery was due to an operation for cancer of the stomach. What might have been the ultimate effect, the doctors are unwilling to guess. Not only the appendix but a large space of the intestines was filled with the pits. After the cancerous growth had been cut away the surgeons took away the pits and the patient quickly recovered.
